

INTO THE SILENCE

I enter into the silence.

I want for nothing.

I rest in anticipation and expectancy of peace..

In silence there is just me.

Just me soon subsides.

Thoughts arise but they slow and disappear.

Is there anything besides I?

Everything is unified.

There is no other.

I and the father are one.

Father, thy will be done!

